

Rahway Art Selfie Stroll

1. Use the guide below to find art around Rahway
2. Take a picture featuring you and the art
3. Email photos to rahwayishappening@gmail.com by October 11
4. Be entered to win one of three $50 gift cards to the Rahway business of your choice

*As you explore our town you'll find many beautiful things, one fan favorite is Lawrence Ciarallo's Rahway Wings
Main Street and Cherry Street*

*Art tends to be a labor of love that comes from the heart. Head to Cherry Street to find Linda Grant's yarn art.
Cherry Street*

*Monchy's has created something beautiful and bright. You won't regret checking out this amazing sight.
West Main Street*

*Union County Performing Arts Center is the place to be! Make your way there to take a picture under the marquee.
Irving Street*

*Art is bigger than you and I, as are the letters that spell it out. Go to the Gallery Space and if you had any doubt.
Irving Street*

*Dean Karol has given us a little piece of Bourbon Street here in Rahway, and we've got to say, it's quite the display.
Irving Street and Elm Avenue*

*They say there's a pot of gold at the end of a rainbow, but this one leads to Cherry Street and a great cup of Joe.
Irving and Cherry Street*

*Along West Grand you'll find the words "Art is for Everyone" Aside from being beautiful, art is also fun!
West Grand Avenue and Fernote Street*

*Two of the murals in town represent patriotic pride. Head to Jefferson and Maple to find them practically side by side.
Jefferson Avenue and Maple Avenue*

*Firehouse Eatery and Pub has a mural on its wall, one of fire trucks and ladders standing tall.
St Georges Avenue*

